Hi,

I'd do 15 lbs. I'll smoke 20/because you lose 25% That way you can have some leftovers. My cost is $3.63 per lb from my meat company, so I'll charge you $5 lb or $100 yo help cover labor.

Lmk if this works, thx !

Hi James,

I wanted to follow up on our conversation to get some brisket for my family. I would want to pick it up on Thursday around 2pm.

I may need about 10-20lbs. (Is that an appropriate amount?) 50 people, but we will have ham and turkey too.

How much would this be?
